Mill Street

West side of street

Mill St. was originally part of the Clarkston mill's property and remains a right-of-way from Main St. to the alley to the west. A view of the mill building constructed at the end of this right-of-way in 1839 appears below.

