Description

The Haven House is a 1 1/2 story rectangular wood frame structure with an addition on the north. This structure has asbestos siding, a cut coarse stone foundation, aluminum sash rectangular windows with shutters. The screened porch is constructed of fieldstone. A garage is also located on the property. Landscaping includes a large deciduous tree near the driveway.

Significance

Date of Construction ca. 1860

Architect/Builder

The lot this structure is situated on was originally owned by Butler Holcomb in 1831. A significant aspect of this building is its close relationship to the street which is representative of a mid 19th Century Village.
